

This listing of claims will replace all prior versions, and listings, of claims in the application:

1. (currently amended) A merchandising system for articles comprising:

a biasing system including comprising a track with comprising a front end portion and a rear portion;

a mount coupled to the rear portion of the biasing system, the mount configured to couple to a base;

a member positioned underneath the track and configured to suspend articles underneath the track for selective removal therefrom; and a biasing mechanism mounted to the track, the biasing mechanism having a pusher and being biased to move the articles in a direction from the rear portion of the track toward the front end portion of the track,;~~and~~

~~a pusher;~~

~~wherein the mount is configured to couple with a base; and~~

~~wherein the biasing system is configured to move the articles from the rear of the~~ ~~track to the front of the track.~~

2-3. (canceled)

4. (currently amended) The merchandising system of claim ~~3~~1 wherein the member positioned underneath the track and configured to suspend the articles is a rod that allows the articles to slide along a length of the rod, the rod having a first end configured to at least partially restrain movement of the articles.

5-7. (canceled)

8. (currently amended) The merchandising system of claim 4 wherein the pusher includes portions slidably coupled to the track and wherein the biasing mechanism is coupled to the pusher and to the front end portion of the track~~-proximate the front~~.

9-10. (canceled)

11. The merchandising system of claim 8 wherein the biasing ~~mechanism~~member ~~further~~ comprises an aperture that the rod at least partially extends through as the biasing member moves along the track.

12-23. (canceled)

24.(currently amended) In a system for merchandising products suspended from a member, the improvement comprising:

a track adjacent to the member, ~~the track~~and having a front end and a back end;
and

a pusher slidably coupled to the track and configured to advance products suspended from the member from the back end of the track to the front end of the track;

wherein the pusher comprises an aperture that the member at least partially extends through as the pusher advances along the track.

25-27. (canceled)

28. (currently amended) The merchandising system of claim ~~27~~4 wherein the pusher is slidably coupled to the track and is advanced by a biasing mechanism that urges the pusher from the back end of the track to the front end of the track.

29-30. (canceled)